Selection of cheeses

from around Sussex (£2.50 supplement)

Served with bread or biscuits, celery & quince jelly

Pick 3 options:

Lord of the hundreds - sheep milk cheese made to closely guarded secret recipe, with a sweet nutty flavour, matured for 4 months.

St Giles - organic cows cheese, creamy flavour, edible rind. Similar to French port salut.

Sussex Blue - a sharp, aggressive & creamy cheese with small blue veins. Warm to release full flavour & aroma.

Broadoak cheddar - traditionally made cloth bound truckle cheddar, full flavoured & matured for 9 months.

Brother Michael - is St Giles which has been washed several times in cheese cultures which gives the orange, pink colour & the distinctive sticky, pungent aroma.

Why not include this instead of a cheese?

Crusted port (50ml)

To finish:

Crusted port (50ml)	£3.95
Tawny port (50ml)	£4.00
Zucardi Mendoza dessert wine 100ml	£4.50
